

Editors
Justin Dillon – King's College London, United Kingdom
Koos Kortland – Utrecht University, the Netherlands

ESERA Website:
www.esera.org

Table of contents

- STCSE Bibliography
- Vacancy: Lecturer in Science Education
- New PhDs
- PhD Scholarships
- Primary Education Symposium
- Emergent Science Conference
- NARST Conference 2006
- ICASE Conference 2007
- Workshop on Multimedia in Physics Teaching and Learning

This electronic newsletter is a service to the members of ESERA provided by the ESERA Executive.

Earlier issues of this newsletter can be found on the ESERA Website.

STCSE Bibliography

The latest version of the STCSE Bibliography (Students' and Teachers' Conceptions and Science Education) is now available. For more information and details about downloading the new full version or the upgrade version go to the News Section on the ESERA Website.

Message provided by Reinders Duit.

Vacancy: Lecturer in Science Education

The University of York, UK has a vacancy for a Lecturer in Science Education. They would welcome applications for this post from outside the UK.

Message provided by Robin Millar

New PhDs

The following abstracts of recently completed PhDs have been added to the ESERA Website. Congratulations to you all:

- Olle Eskilsson – A longitudinal study on 10-12 year olds' conceptions of the transformation of matter
- Michail Kalogiannakis – Has the introduction of ICT and PTE in French secondary education resulted in a shifting of roles for teachers involved? A case study concerning physics teachers
- Ugo Besson – A mesoscopic approach to teaching fluid statics. Study of students' conceptions, design and experimentation of a teaching sequence (in French)
- Rolf V. Olsen – Achievement tests from an item perspective: An exploration of single item data from the PISA and TIMSS studies, and how such data can inform us about students' knowledge and thinking in science
- Sonja M. Mork – ICT in Science Education. Exploring the Digital Learning Materials at viten.no
- Roja Bagheri-Crosson – Mobilization of the magnetic field concept by students from DEUG "Sciences de la Matière": didactic analysis using the conceptual fields theory

PhD Scholarships

There are PhD Scholarships available to study at Kings' College London's Department of Education and Professional Studies (DEPS) and at The Graduate School of Education at the University of Bristol, UK. For details go to the News Section on the ESERA Website.

For more info go to:
www.york.ac.uk > job vacancies > current staff vacancies > lecturer in science education

Get direct access to these abstracts by clicking on the title

Primary Education Symposium

The Faculty of Education at the Dokuz Eylul University and the TAKEV Primary School in Izmir, Turkey will host a symposium about primary education. Date: April 15, 2006. Deadline for proposals: February 27, 2006.
Message provided by Bulent Cavas.

Emergent Science Conference

The Bishop Grosseteste College, Lincoln, UK will host an Emergent Science Conference for anyone interested in science education for children up to 8 years of age. Dates: June 15-16, 2006.
Message provided by Jane Johnston.

NARST Conference 2006

The NARST Conference 2006 will be held in San Francisco, USA. Dates: April 3-6, 2006. There will be an ESERA/NARST joint session on April 5.

ICASE Conference 2007

The next World Conference on Science and Technology Education will be held in Perth, Western Australia. Dates: July 8-12, 2007.

Workshop on Multimedia in Physics Teaching and Learning

The University of Szeged, Hungary will host the 11th Workshop on Multimedia in Physics Teaching and Learning. Dates: September 20-22, 2006.
Message provided by Mihály Benedict & Katalin Papp

For more info go to:
www.takevokulu.k12.tr >
symposium on primary education

For more info go to:
www.bgc.ac.uk > college
services & conferences > conferences > emergent science conference

For more info go to:
www.educ.sfu.ca

For more info go to:
worldste2007.asn.au

For more info go to:
titan.physx.u-szeged.hu